DERANN FILM SERVICES, in association with EMI FILM DISTRIBUTORS, are proud to present REVIEWS OF THE YEARS, and other interesting material from the vast Pathe News film library. By far and away the most popular of all newsreels made, complete with all original titles.

PATHE	REVIEW	OF 1939
PATHE	REVIEW	OF 1940
PATHE	REVIEW	OF 1941
PATHE	REVIEW	OF 1943
PATHE	REVIEW	OF 1945
PATHE	REVIEW	OF 1946

Pathe have captured for all time, the heartache, the glory, and splendour for us all to see. Beautifully presented, these are collectors films, that will take an honoured place in your private film library.

THESE LIGHTS MUST NOT GO OUT

A film made by Pathe News, to bring to the public's attention the high rate of Entertainment tax on the cinemas, we see various cinemas, Elstree Studios, and see the damage that the high tax does to the cinema industry.

Then to London to see the premier of the film THE DAM BUSTERS, we see all the stars arrive on this glittering night.

TIN PAN ALLEY

Back to the fifties, to see lots of recording stars arrive to cut discs, in Tin Pan Alley, we see Vera Lynn, Billy Cotton, Geraldo, in fact a host of recording stars of that day. Highly recommended, in this Pathe Piccette, and a gentle remainder of the fifties.

Starring: Micheal Anthony
Georgine Darcy
Christina Hart

Laureen Worthington appears to be an excellent mother, a capable homemaker, and a delightfully open, bright person. Her virtues as a wife however, are quickly suspect as the scene changes to find this lovely, and expensively dressed, well-mannered matron in the streets of New Orleans roaring French quarter alone, and obviously no stranger to the Quarters style or its kinky inhabitants.
